Three SU-76 guns and 7 trucks were in the barracks yard on 7 August.

[redacted] 20 JS-3 tanks were unloaded at the Oberer Bahnhof in late July and were hauled to the Hindenburg Kaserne. After they were there for a number of days, they [redacted] departed during the night of 4 August [redacted]

2. During the period from 4 to 6 August, the Koenig Georg Kaserne on Neuendorfer Strasse was occupied to capacity by about 100 soldiers and guarded by sentries who wore either red-bordered black epaulets or black-bordered crimson epaulets. [redacted] the installation was more heavily occupied than during recent weeks. Two 57-mm AT guns and six trucks were in the barracks yard on 4 August. About 200 soldiers were engaged in athletics on 6 August. **

3. On 9 August, the Kirchbach Kaserne on Zaderastrasse was occupied by about 500 soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets. Individual soldiers wore signal insignia. About 7 soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets were drilling. No motor vehicle traffic was noticed. A radio truck from which a six-wire line extended toward Darga via Baumuehle on the Elster River was still in operation on the barracks yard. [redacted]

* [redacted] Comment. The information indicates that the 112th 3ds Itz Rifle Regt of the 39th 3ds Itz Rifle Div is still stationed in the Hindenburg Kaserne.
[redacted] Soldiers of this regiment wear black-bordered red epaulets. There is no reason to believe [redacted] from the observation of black-bordered crimson epaulets that a major IGB unit is stationed in the barracks installation. Other information has indicated that only small components of the regiment had been in Ohrdruf for short training periods this summer. [redacted]

** [redacted] Comment. The 87th Gun Arty Regt of the 39th 3ds Itz Rifle Div is based in the Koenig Georg Kaserne. According to the reports of this source, this regiment has not been at a troop training grounds.

*** [redacted] Comment. Source previously reported 600 soldiers in the installation, and later only about 150 soldiers. [redacted]
